TITLE: Hinge apparatus of mobile terminal

This application was preliminarily rejected pursuant to Article 63 of the Korean Patent Law based on the following reason. Should there be any opinion against this action, please file a written argument by March 28, 2005. (You can apply for 1-month extension per each case, and we do not notify you of the confirmation for such term extension.)

[REASON]

This invention described in claims 1 to 5 can be easily invented by those skilled in the art as pointed out below. Accordingly, the above-identified patent application cannot be registered pursuant to Article 29, Paragraph 2 of the Korean Patent Law.

The present invention relates to a hinge apparatus for a mobile communication terminal having a deceleration section, which can provide a braking power generated by friction in a particular rotation section. The hinge apparatus includes:

- a fixed cam mounted on one side of a rotary shaft;
- a moving cam mounted on one side of the fixed cam for being straightly moved along the rotary shaft via a reciprocating motion between the fixed cam and the moving cam;
- an elastic means for supporting the moving cam elastically;
- a housing for lodging the moving cam and the elastic means; and
- a frictional force generation means mounted on one side of the housing for generating frictional force in a predetermined section during the reciprocating operation of the fixed cam and the moving cam.

However, Japanese patent laid-open No. 2001-251396 published on September 14, 2001, includes

- a body driving unit connected to an end of a body case and rotating together with the body case in an integrated form;
- a cover operating unit connected to an end of a cover case and rotating together with the cover case;
- a rotary spring for contacting and pressing the cam surface of the cover and the cam surface of the body;
- a friction-resistant unit formed in a disk unit of the cover operating unit; and
- a pair of disk-type members contacting the friction-resistant unit.

Therefore, it is considered that the present invention can be easily invented from the cited reference.
